

Sugarloaf Ballet

Sugarloaf Ballet Nominated as a Top Business by Gwinnett Chamber

May 13th IMPACT Regional Business Awards to celebrate premier organizations driving economic development and job creation

Gwinnett County (METRO ATLANTA) GA – Sugarloaf Ballet has been recognized as one of the top businesses in metro Atlanta with a nomination for a 2015 IMPACT Regional Business Award, presented by BB&T.

Designed to be reflective and unique to Gwinnett and across the metro Atlanta area, the Gwinnett Chamber will honor and celebrate exemplary organizations from the community at the IMPACT Regional Business Awards on Thursday, May 13 from 11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. at the Gwinnett Center.

“We are incredibly honored to be nominated for this award,” said Sugarloaf Ballet Artistic Director Lori Zamzow-Wire, “We believe in the power of the performing arts to not only transform individual lives but also uplift the entire community, and that is why we are committed to providing professional instruction and productions in Gwinnett and the entire Metro-Atlanta area.”

The IMPACT Regional Business Awards recognizes Gwinnett and metro Atlanta’s best-in-class organizations in the following areas:

- Builder
- Education
- Entrepreneur (Established and Pre-Venture)
- Healthcare
- Hospitality
- Information Technology
- International
- Nonprofit
- Service industry
- Small business

An overall Impact Regional Business Awards recipient will be selected from one of the above category winners.

"The IMPACT Regional Business Awards celebrate premier organizations in critical industries that are driving economic development and job creation, while enhancing our quality of life," said Dr. Dan Kaufman, President & CEO of the Gwinnett Chamber. "They represent the creativity, determination, and engagement of our business community and are examples of the enormous contributions of Gwinnett businesses and their employees."

Contact Gwinnett Chamber Programs & Events Manager Cally D'Angelo at 678.957.4958 or CDAngelo@GwinnettChamber.org for partnership opportunities or with questions.

About Us Sugarloaf Ballet is a nonprofit performing company founded by Lori Zamzow-Wire with a mission to professionally inspire young artists through excellence in performing arts education. Led by Artistic Director, Lori Zamzow-Wire, and Company Director, Michelle Bourgeois, Sugarloaf Ballet presents a full season of productions each year: Family Classic (October), Nativity Ballet (December), Youth Concert Series (January), and Director's Gala (May 16th 2015). Sugarloaf Ballet includes student, pre-professional and college level companies, and gives over $20,000 each year in scholarships for students in financial need. The Sugarloaf Ballet is housed at Sugarloaf Performing Arts, a 7,000 sq. ft. instructional facility, in Duluth, GA. Sugarloaf Performing Arts is located at 1140 Old Peachtree Road, Ste. B, Duluth, GA 30097. For more information, please call 770-476-0025.

###

MEDIA CONTACT

Heather Hatzenbuhler | 404-245-3247 | heather@sugarloafballet.org

PROGRAM CONTACT

Cally D'Angelo | 678.957.4958 | cdangelo@gwinnettchamber.org